

Architectural floor plan of a staircase area. The central feature is a yellow rectangular area labeled "TR01 STAIRS" with a dimension of "18 m<sup>2</sup>". This area is filled with a pattern of vertical lines. Above the stairs, the text "DN" indicates a downward direction. The entire yellow area is enclosed within a larger rectangular frame. The walls are represented by a grey cross-hatch pattern. To the right, a curved line suggests an opening or a transition to another space. The plan is oriented with a grid of lines in the background.
